

Beatrice Agostini

Beatrice is a Project Manager of the UISP (Unione Italiana Sport per Tutti) in Trento, responsible for regional, national, and international projects with the aim to extend the right to sport to every citizen. She is involved in projects where she works in partnerships with social bodies, healthcare companies, Universities; using sport as a social activity to improve health, quality of life, integration and education. Beatrice has a Master degree in Experimental Psychology and Cognitive Science, and a PhD at the University of Trento. During her studies she was guest researcher at the Royal Holloway University of London.