

Andreas Klages

Andreas Klages is the Chief Executive Officer of the State Sport Confederation of Hessen since 2018, with 25 years experience in sport management on a national level. He is a member of advisory bodies on the regional and German level in the fields of sports, environment, local politics and regional planning. Andreas is also involved and engaged in sports as a volunteer.