

Pia Pauly

Pia Pauly, is the head of the Sport for All department and leader of the DTB Academy. She has plenty of experience in the management of national international projects in the field of Health Enhancing Physical Activity. She has been working alongside policy makers and practitioner, bringing scientific data about inactivity in Germany and the programs and practices to increase activity levels in citizens.